PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant and to incorporate the alleged violations with the violations previously reported to the Court on December 8, 2023.

On May 18, 2022, supervised release conditions were reviewed in person with Mr. Axtell. He signed his revocation judgment acknowledging an understanding of his supervised release conditions.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

2 Special Condition #3: You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to testing (which may include urinalysis or sweat patch), as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Axtell is alleged to be in violation of his supervised release conditions by consuming cocaine on or about January 1, 2024.

On January 2, 2024, this officer contacted Mr. Axtell at his residence. During the conversation Mr. Axtell informed this officer he was struggling to maintain his sobriety and admitted to consuming cocaine on January 1, 2024.

Special Condition #4: You shall abstain from alcohol and shall submit to testing (including urinalysis and Breathalyzer), as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from this substance

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Axtell is alleged to be in violation of his supervised release conditions by consuming alcohol on or about January 2, 2024.

On January 2, 2024, at approximately 9:15 a.m. this officer contacted Mr. Axtell at his residence. During the conversation Mr. Axtell informed this officer he was struggling to maintain his sobriety and admitted to consuming alcohol this same morning, prior to this officer's arrival at his residence.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court incorporate the alleged violations with violations previously reported to the Court. It is also recommended that the Court issue a warrant.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: January 2, 2024
